STATE MILE King, Bill Squires, appears to be looking toward the National Championship on Feb. 16 in New York. "Good luck and break that worsted, Bill," says Arlington's greatest coach, "Doc" McCarty, who will accompany his protege as he voices the cheers of all local rooters.

REFUSE PAPERS OF 2 CANDIDATES

Signatures Are Faulty

Political circles here were startled last week when it was learned that the Board of Registrars ruled two candidates of the ballot for an insufficient number of proper nomination signatures.

Ruled out were the names of Albert Hansen, candidate for Assessor, and John M. Stiff, candidate for School Committee.

After careful examination Thursday night, the Registrars could find only 181 valid signatures for Hansen, 188 for Stiff. Two hundred and four was the legal minimum this year (one percent of the vote cast for Governor in the preceding election).

Hansen had filed 275 names; Stiff, 242. The two candidates were notified of the Board's ruling by registered mail on Friday.

The chief reason for rejection, it is said, was that the signatures did not conform to the name on the voting list: for example, John J. Jones had signed "J. J. Jones" or "John James Jones." In other cases women had signed as "Mrs. John J. Jones" instead of "Jenny Jones." The use of "Mrs." makes the signature void anyway, it is ruled.

Another cause for rejection was that many of the signers were not registered voters, according to the Registrars. Before asking for a signature, this fact should be ascertained, it is suggested.

Less frequently, it was noted that several names of members of one family had been signed in the same handwriting.

Curious Situation

What is described as a curious situation has developed locally in recent years. Candidates have the habit of not filing until the last moment. Perhaps the element of surprise intrigues them. Yet, on the other hand, the fact that a candidate has "taken out" papers is public information which newspapers habitually publish.

"During the final rush we just cannot check signatures before the deadline," said Town Clerk Golden. "If candidates would file before the Monday deadline, we would have time to check."

Actually, two early birds were notified that they were "a little light" on signatures and had time to bring in more before the deadline after being notified, Golden said.

BLOOD DONATED

With prospective donors standing in line to donate their blood at the St. John's parish hall from the time the doors opened Monday morning until they closed at 7:30, the Bloodmobile in Arlington put in its busiest day here to date.

Two hundred and fourteen donors, 34 of whom were rejected, supplied the Red Cross with 180 pints of blood.

An unusual number of unscheduled donors who "dropped in" to make a donation without an appointment kept the nurses working half an hour behind schedule, Mrs. Russell Hamlet, chairman, explained.

She paid particular tribute to the large delegations from the Arlington Gas Company, the Telephone Company and firemen signed up by the Firemen's Relief Association.

The Red Cross staff aids, nurses' aides, nurses, Gray Ladies, motor corps and canteen workers, all contributed to the success of the day.

Mrs. Hamlet paid particular tribute to Police Officer Lester Peabody, who she said was a one-man recruiting team for donors, signing up more than 30 during December.

Welfare Board Puts Town In Awkward Payroll Spot

Three State Bills Called Needless

Town Clerk James J. Golden has taken up the cudgel against three State bills which will cause, he believes, "considerable increase in costs for the Clerk's office."

Golden is fighting the legislation both as Clerk of this Town and as president of the Massachusetts Town Clerks Ass'n. He said that the Selectmen, too, have gone on record as opposed to two of the bills.

House Bill 1699 calls for uniform registration hours with evening registration hours required on six consecutive days from 8

Put Life Tenure Bill On Ballot For J. W. Anderson

The life tenure bill for Town Treasurer J. Wilbert Anderson, recently enacted by both branches of the State legislature, will undoubtedly appear on the ballot this March as a referendum article, it is believed.

Confirmation of this report was learned by the Advocate last night.

The bill would give the Arlington Treasurer and Collector (both jobs being held by Anderson) these positions for life as long as his future health and capability of doing his work is considered adequate.

Elected town officials may seek life tenure after holding office for 10 years. Anderson was elected Treasurer in 1942 to succeed the late Charles Hardy. Prior to that he served two terms as Collector. The offices were also combined in 1942 at a saving to the Town.

Although the warrant has been officially closed and signed by the Selectmen, it is understood the life tenure article may be added if Lt. Gov. Jeff Sullivan signs the bill in the next few days.

The possible insertion was described as "courtesy extended to Town officials." Further, Anderson had previously informed the Selectmen of the pending bill. The delay in signing of the bill has been due to Gov. Dever's absence while in Florida, it is said.

Life tenure has been called a companion to civil service. It aims to provide security for worthy, elected officials.

Experience has shown that it is difficult to remove officials under life tenure or civil service unless cause is very flagrant. In a recent case the Federal government spent $500,000 to oust a department head under civil service.

The judge chided the government on spending the equivalent of the man's $5,000 salary for 100 years.

Although Golden did not say so, the thought seemed to be that this bill is another example of the State's usurpation of home rule.

As to House #1702, the expense could be astronomical, he declared. "It would force Registrars to travel any place in the State to enroll a group of 10 or more local voters who might be in a veteran's hospital, a war plant, school or college."

Traveling expense would have to be paid and the Registrars would undoubtedly ask for salary increases, it is felt.

The third bill (S. 111) asks that the True List carry more information, particularly on veterans. The workers would be asked to find out (a) if any member of the family is or was a member of the armed forces, (b) if so, what war, and (c) what was the state of residence at the time of entry.

It is understood this bill is being sponsored to help fill the Civilian Defense rosters.

It is unnecessary, Golden believes, since military records are already available at the State House.

"Workers complete the True List in about two weeks now," he said. "This additional data would cause appreciable delay and increase costs."

The added expense would be three or four fold, Golden believes.

Registrar Timothy Buckley appeared with Golden at recent hearings to oppose the two House bills.

SUBSTITUTE election officers have been named by Selectmen: Prec. 8, Phyllis Byrne, 7 Bartlett ave.; Prec. 12, Virginia M. McNally, 22 Cedar ave.

Requires Town Pay Over Maximums

SALARY CHAOS SEEN

The State Welfare board has ruled that Arlington Selectmen must pay certain workers in the local Welfare Dept. prescribed minimums. These figures are from $200 to $500 higher than the scale in force here now, Board of Selectmen Secretary Frank K. Nicksay said yesterday.

The State board is composed of the director of Welfare, director of Civil Service and the head of Division of Accounts.

Up to this year certain leeways have been granted. However, the mandatory ruling has been invoked, backed by Section 47d of Chapter 31, a law of several years' standing.

Penalty for non-compliance is the withdrawal of $225,000 in State and Federal welfare aid here.

Chaos is predicted unless some relief can be found. The Selectmen have asked both Rep. Gott and Keenan as well as Sen. Campbell to intercede.

The ruling throws askew the local pay and classification plan because it would call for higher pay, in some instances, to junior over senior employees of the Welfare department.

Further, inequalities of pay for the same work would exist in comparison with other Town departments.

It is said other communities, too, are "up in arms" and see it as another step to undermine home rule by the State.

The ability of the community to pay increases and subsequent ones, which, it is felt, would follow, is ignored by the State, it is charged.

RICHER by $799.53 is the Thompson Scholarship Fund. A final settlement of the estate brought in the extra sum, according to Town Counsel Hamlet.

Mrs. Ellard Writes Memorial Poem For Daughter, Slain One Year Ago

One year ago, residents of Arlington were horrified by the savage murder of Ethel Ellard on the night of Feb. 9. The crime remains unsolved.

Mrs. Agnes Ellard, mother of Ethel, now living at 20 Iroquois rd., this week submitted to the Advocate this memorial poem:

In Memory of Ethel Agnes Ellard
Days of sadness still come o'er us,
Tears of silence often flow.
For memory keeps you ever near
Though you died one year ago.

We often sit and think of you
And of the way you died,
And that you could not say good-bye
Before you closed your eyes.

The blow was hard, the shock severe;
We never thought your death was near.
But only those who have lost can tell
The pain of parting without farewell.

Gets Injunction Against A. F. of L.

Special to Advocate by GNS
Judge Jesse W. Morton, Middlesex Superior Court, in an equity session yesterday, issued an injunction against the Insurance Agents International Union to A. F. of L. from picketing the home of John R. Daley, 42, of 58 Melrose st.

This was a result of a bill in equity filed by Daley who is an insurance agent for the Prudential Life Insurance Co.

Daley stated that on Jan. 11, pickets went to his home with placards and also made telephone calls to his home telling his wife that she and her husband should change their minds and go out on strike. Daley said that he never was a member of the A. F. of L. and never joined the strike. He did business at his home as an agent.

Daley stated that the picketers caused apprehension and fear in his family.

Korean Hero, Pinned Under Jeep Before Found, Returns; Says GI's Love Kids

A local sergeant, home on furlough from Korea, who happened to attend a club meeting here, thrilled his audience with an impromptu but dramatic story of the fighting front.

On Monday night when the Legion Auxiliary was holding its regular meeting, Sgt. Frederick Vickers complied with the plea of Mrs. Anna Myatt, president, to talk to them.

Sgt. Vickers, 27, son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Vickers of 3 Osborne rd., arrived home on Jan. 22 from Korea on a month's leave, after 17 months there.

In talking to this reporter later, Sgt. Vickers said he believed we should "jump in with both feet and finish up this Korean business."

It is not fair to the American fighting man, he said, to let it drag on longer. In this connection he paid high tribute to General Douglas MacArthur, as a military man the soldier in the field could "trust and believe in."

Every mother of a fighting man in Korea should be assured, he said, that the Army is doing everything possible to take good care of her boy. The first winter he was in Korea, often at temperatures thirty or more below zero, clothing was entirely inadequate, but that is not true now, he said.

"It is up to the individual soldier to a large extent how well he gets along. If he doesn't take (Continued on Page 5)

Arlington Resident Establishes High Mark For Blood Donations

Having established an outstanding record of donating 32 pints of blood—that's right, four gallons—to the American Red Cross, Mrs. Ruth S. Woodworth of 47 Kilsyth rd., has now set a goal of five gallons, believing that this is one way in which she is able to help those who are making great sacrifices for all.

When World War II was proclaimed, and there came the urgent call for blood donations, Mrs. Woodworth was quick to respond, and has carried on this patriotic work regularly as time permitted.

Many residents of Arlington will recall the exhibitions of Mrs. Woodworth's art work in the Robbins Library. In addition to being an accomplished artist, she has achieved success in music, having been a soloist and choir director in the Concord Reformatory in October.

QUOTATION FOR THE WEEK

"The 'Blessing' from the Poor is the only inheritance that the Rich cannot lose."

—Ayme

chosen by the Rev. Joseph M. Fitzgibbons, pastor of St. Jerome's Church.

CARELESS, NOT DISHONEST

Anyone who knows the two candidates who were disqualified last week by the Board of Registrars we believe will agree that the procedure of obtaining signatures for nomination papers was carelessly done with no intent or attempt at dishonesty.

Every candidate should realize that the instant he throws his hat into the ring, his every act will be checked, every word will be weighed, his past history studied. Every citizen should know how his name appears on the voting list or whether he is a registered voter—but they don't. The responsibility therefore has to lie upon the candidate.

Much of the trouble, we believe, was caused by failure to heed the ancient admonition—"Don't send a boy on a man's mission."

A lad of about ten years of age called at our home a week ago Sunday. When we opened the door, a paper was thrust into our hands. He said, "I don't know what this is all about but my father wants you to sign it."

Unfortunately we did not know his father. Neither did the lad know whether he was talking to a registered voter or not, or to a new resident of the town, or whether we had signed other papers.

Surprisingly few people realize that an individual cannot sign more papers of different candidates than there are positions open. Thus, if two or more of your closest friends are running for Selectman and there is only one spot open, you can sign only the papers of one candidate. If there are six openings for Town Meeting member, you can sign the papers of six candidates but not any more.

In the year 1952 two men have been a bit humiliated without malice on their own part or on the part of the Registrars. Let it stand as a lesson—future candidates, beware.

REPEAT THE SCOUT OATH

This week we agree with President Truman. We too want to wish Happy Birthday to the Boy Scouts.

We endorse wholeheartedly every good wish he gave the group of 12 outstanding Scouts in his office this week in observance of the 42nd anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America.

We, too, think the Boy Scouts of America are an indispensable force for freedom, one of our great natural resources. They are the leaders of tomorrow and the fact that they are Boy Scouts is one of the factors that is going to make them good leaders.

There are 2,900,000 active Boy Scouts on their membership rolls now and we beam approval and best wishes on every one of them and on their birthday theme "Forward . . . on Liberty's Team."

Since 1910 there have been 19 million Boy Scouts in this country. Who can estimate what their influence has been?

If the Moderator at the first Town Meeting next March should suddenly ask every man present who has ever been connected with the Boy Scout movement to stand we venture to estimate there would be almost a mass uprising. And it might not be a bad idea at that and then have them all repeat the Scout oath.

Today is the anniversary of the birth of Charles Dickens, British author, in 1812.

TO: FUND RAISERS AND CAMPAIGN CHAIRMEN

We have witnessed in succession three successful drives, very successful—the Salvation Army, the March of Dimes, the Bloodmobile.

The heads of these are to be congratulated not only for their accomplishment, but they have proven that there is nothing wrong with our Town; that, given a worthy cause, organization and work is the key.

That Man About Town

By MAT

Attention—Arlington Safety Committee: Just past the Winchester Country Club on Mystic st., going toward Winchester, you will see a new type safety sign on a steel pole, hanging over Route 3. This is an attention-gatherer which, from our ten minute observation, DID slow down through-traffic. We could use several of them in this town.

The Finance Committee members are again hard at work. And believe us, when we say "they work." The public-minded men on this committee are giving up almost every evening in the few weeks past, and in the several weeks to come, in order to check every phase of town budgets and articles which will, in the end, spend taxpayers money. It's no cinch to sit there, evening after evening, and try to listen to the arguments of town officials, citizens and committees for money. No pay is attached to the job, either. So have some sympathy for them when you hear the arguments presented by the committee chairman, pro and con, regarding spending of money.

No contests in major offices of the Town this year. Hence we can easily predict a light vote, probably the lightest in years. In the minor contests, not enough pressure can be brought on voters to get them to the polls. Here we have the possibility that minority candidates can win if they put enough effort to get out their votes in the fourteen precincts. We well recall when we once elected a state representative with less than 1000 votes cast in the whole town. This only a few years ago. The winner did shake enough voters out of their lethargy in town contests to get himself a job. The loser, on the other hand, did little work to get out his vote. Had he done so, he easily could have dug up the 300 votes, more or less, to win. It pays to work for the job, if one wants it.

To say the Plan has failed is a bit too blunt but we do feel the personnel board idea has failed. One fault is that it is too small. There is too much pressure on just three men. Secondly, it has failed to arbitrate. Disputes as to reclassification and raises are still arising on the Town Meeting floor with the Board stating one side and the employee the opposite. The original idea, as we understand it, was that the parties should conciliate and agree, then come to the Town Meeting with a single plan to ask for the money or reclassification, if such was recommended. The unfortunate wrangles and clashes of personalities still will dominate the TM.

PACK 43

A visit with "Dr. I. Q." in the person of Committeeman Charles Morrissey, led to a gratifying quiz contest for Cub Scouts in Pack 43 at the January meeting. After choosing his category and conquering the question, each boy made his way down the steps with the coveted reward.

A guest in the flesh, Miss Alice Miffin, brought a brief and fascinating glimpse of Hale House, Boston, to the Cubs.

Gorton Thompson, assistant cubmaster, was in charge, assisted by past cubmaster Walter McCulloch. The Flag Ceremony was conducted by Den 5, Mrs. Marshall Newton, den mother, and the same pack won custody of the flags for the coming month.

Scout Layne Porter, former den chief, was introduced, with the statement that he would be glad to work with cubs who are preparing to become scouts. A nail driving contest, using a penny nail, is to be held at the next meeting. Scout Week is to be observed February 6 to 12, and members wear uniforms daily during that time.

Awards were made as follows: Bobcat, Francis Bellizia; Wolf Badge, Richard Moore, James Bradford; Richard Tavilla, Lse Roscoe; Wolf Badge and gold arrow, Jeffery Newton; gold arrow on Wolf, David Morine; silver arrow on Wolf, Robert Cavicchi; gold arrow and two silver arrows on Bear, Dirk Casagrande; second year pin, Stephen Nazro; first year pin, Charles Morrissey, Robert Cavicchi and Richard Anderson.

Appointed To Committee

James R. Canavan, 225 Waverly st., has been appointed a member of the Education Committee of the Massachusetts Society of Certified Public Accountants, according to James B. Willing, president.

In addition to his activity in the Massachusetts Society, Mr. Canavan is also a member of the American Institute of Accountants and of Boston Chapter, National Association of Cost Accountants.

Canavan is a senior instructor at Bentley School of Accounting and Finance, Boston, and is a Certified Public Accountant of Massachusetts.

SPIRITUAL RICHES IN CHRIST

The unsearchable riches of Christ. (Ephesians 3:8.) Read Ephesians 3:8-21.

IN Paul's mind the idea evidently behind this word "unsearchable" was that Christ is like a continent on which are areas where no human footfall was ever heard; that He is like a region containing riches which have scarcely been tapped. Paul would say that there are in Christ areas which we have never known or visited. How suggestive that is!

Paul speaks of several kinds of unexplored territory. One of these is "riches of his grace." What a pity that we do not realize that we have this for the taking! Another is the "riches of his goodness." Again, to the Romans, Paul speaks of "the riches of his glory." Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him." Paul breaks out into song when he realizes the wealth that is his—"O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God!"

Do we "possess our possessions"?

PRAYER

O God, we bless Thee for Thy unlimited riches. Forbid that we should live at a poor dying rate, that we perish with hunger while Thy table is laden with spiritual riches. For Jesus' sake. Amen.

Colorful Indian Play Given At Pack 7 Meeting

A Holy Hour under the direction of Father Keneally preceded the regular Pack 7 meeting for Cub Scouts of St. Agnes Church. A letter of thanks was read for the 100 gifts and sixty scrap books that the Cubs made and sent to the Kennedy Memorial Foundation for Christmas.

Flag bearers at the ceremony which opened the meeting in the school hall were Hugh Gulderson, Ralph Lennon and Lawrence DiStefano.

Cubmaster Fetchett made the following awards: John Smith, bear badge with gold and silver arrow; Ned McGrath, gold and silver arrow for wolf; Anthony Fernandez, wolf badge; Thomas Treacy, wolf badge; William Brady, wolf badge with gold and silver arrow; Stephen Weber, wolf badge with gold and silver arrow; Hugh Gulderson, silver arrow for wolf; Lawrence DiStefano, silver arrow for wolf; Robert Welch, wolf badge; John Doherty, gold arrow for wolf; Ralph Lennon, gold arrow for wolf.

An Indian play was presented by dens 3, 7 and 11, directed by Mrs. W. W. Welch Jr., Mrs. Thomas Daly and Mrs. Paul Howe with colorful Indian costumes, weapons, raquets and tools made by the den after careful research by Mrs. Welch.

Included in the cast were Richard Bishop, Paul Howe, Peter Schmidt, Gerald Herlihy, Wade Welch, and Thomas Daly.

W. W. Welch Jr. proved himself a superb make-up man by making the boys real Indians.

The meeting closed with the entire pack singing, "In the Good Old Cubbing Days."

The troop will have a big winter carnival at The Ark, Jaffrey.

ST. JAMES SCOUTERS TO MARK SCOUT ANNIVERSARY OBSERVANCE

Scout Week will be celebrated in a big way by Pack 13, Cub Scouts, sponsored by Saint James Church, Arlington Heights. Rev. Robert Shea, parish director of C.Y.O. activities; George Lemos, Cubmaster, and the Pack 13 Committee have drawn up a program beginning with a Cub Communion Breakfast on Saturday morning, Feb. 9, and ending with a Holy Hour on Scout Sunday afternoon, Feb. 10.

Troop 13, Boy Scouts, will also take part in the events. In accordance with the program of the Boy Scouts of America to have every boy attend a religious service of his faith during Scout Week, the Cubs of Pack 13 and all other Catholic Cubs of the Arlington District who wish to attend (all are invited) together with the Committeemen, Den Mothers, parents and friends, will attend the 8 o'clock mass in St. James Church which will be celebrated by Father Shea, assisted by Father Charles McCarthy.

Immediately afterward a breakfast will be served in the school hall adjoining the church. The Rev. John Carroll, Archdiocesan Director of C.Y.O. activities, will be the speaker at the breakfast.

At 1:30 p.m., Saturday, there will be a Scoutree in the auditorium of St. James school at which there will be exhibited the handicraft and other work of the Cub Scouts. Each den of Pack 13 will have a booth for its exhibit. All packs in the Arlington District are invited to have an exhibit. Boy and Girl Scouts also have been invited to have booths.

During the exhibition there will be entertainment by the St. James band, Robert Woodbury's orchestra, the Happy Trio, John Pearson, Joe Kelley and Kevin O'Leary, the Robert Raydon Accordion group, Den 10 Indian Dance group, Allan Griffin, soloist, Ernestine Cavicchi, Betty Murray and Mona Wedge, songbirds, skits and folk dances by the Brownies, and a skit by Troop 63, Girl Scouts.

On Saturday evening, the Committeemen and their wives will attend the annual Scout Week banquet of Sachem Council at Belmont High School.

On Scout Sunday, Feb. 10, at 3 p.m., there will be a Holy Hour and Benediction at St. James Church on the invitation of the pastor, Rev. George S. Brennan.

All Catholic Cub Scouts, the Boy Scouts who have not gone to the Cathedral services and all Scouters in Sachem Council will participate. Parents and relatives have also been invited.

The Rev. John P. Reynolds will be the preacher at the Holy Hour.

Brackett Fathers Will See Cub "Souper" Circus

The circus is coming to town! George Gilfeather, Clowns Gerald Grey and Mortimer French, and school next Tuesday evening, Keystone Cop E. Warren Heaps. Feb. 12, for the annual Father's night of the Parent-Teacher Association.

Presenting this "Souper Circus" will be Cub Scout Pack 20 which is sponsored by the Brackett P.T.A. Cub master and ring master William Bogardus claims he will be ably hindered by Rube N. H. over the holiday weekend, Feb. 22. The boys will be accompanied by their troop officers and committeemen.

A ski lodge, located in the Monadnock region, has been reserved for the occasion. The boys will enjoy three days of skating, skiing, hikes, movies, campfire and games.

Troop 41 Will Have Winter Sports Weekend

Troop 41 will hold an exhibition for the Brackett school P.T.A. its sponsoring organization, at the school auditorium next Tuesday evening. Over 30 of the scouts will take part in various exhibits and interesting skits.

The program activity of Troop 41 has attracted so many boys that its enrollment has reached an all time high. Because of this applications are now limited to boys from Cub Pack 20 until further notice.

The troop will have a big winter carnival at The Ark, Jaffrey.

Boy Scouts Observe 42nd Birthday

Official Boy Scout Week Poster

President Truman will greet 12 outstanding Boy Scouts in the White House during Boy Scout Week, Feb. 6 to 12, marking the 42nd anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America. Boy Scout Week will be observed throughout the nation by more than 2,000,000 boys and adult leaders. Since 1910, more than 19,000,000 boys and men have been members of the organization. "Forward ... on Liberty's Team" is the birthday theme.

To The Parents of Arlington:

Over 700,000 adults now serve the Boy Scouts of America as volunteer leaders.

BUT that number is not large enough!

Here in Arlington many of our Cub Packs now range upwards in numbers from 80 to 100.

There are Scout Troops now with registrations of from 40 to 50 against the formerly normal number of from 25 to 30.

If you know how to tie a knot, what to do if someone is hurt or how to use tools safely, there is a place for you in a Pack or Troop. If not, a Pack or Troop is a good place to learn. There is nothing negative in Scouting. You DO things and Scouting becomes a reality in the life of a boy only because men and women volunteer to serve as leaders.

It has been truly said that — "Scouting provides well-proven means by which anyone can build a monument to his own goodwill; let him give a small share of his leadership to boys and he can watch his monument grow."

So call in person, write, or telephone any of the men whose names are given here for information on how you can help.

The Cub Scouts and Scouters of Arlington acknowledge with deep appreciation the selfless service of the Den Mothers in our Packs.

YOU NEED SCOUTING and SCOUTING NEEDS YOU!

WINS STATE MILE CHAMPIONSHIP IN FASTEST N. E. TIME

Relay, Sullivan Win

The fastest mile ever run by any N. E. schoolboy was turned in by Bill Squires Saturday at the State Meet at Boston Garden.
Led by Arlington's ace, the Red and Gray team copped the Class
B State Championship crown.

The New England indoor and outdoor scholastic champ rose to his greatest heights, clocked in 4:23.8, shading the old mark of 4:24.2, made by Ray Trail of Schenectady, N. Y., in 1936.

Reports state that Squires just missed the national record by two tenths of a second, held by the phenomenal Les Mitchell, a schoolboy prodigy in his day.

Bob Sullivan won a blue ribbon, and 5 more points for the A.H.S. with a magnificent performance in the 1000-yd. run.
His time of 2:27 was 3.7 seconds faster than that of Downs (Camb.
Latin), the second place man.

Squires brought the crowd to its feet again in the relay. Given a one-yard lead by his mates,
Bill, as anchor man, ran away from the 300-yd. champ, Bill
Trudell of Weymouth, and finished in the van by a good six yards.

Tom Wagner came through in the 50-yd. dash with an important 2nd place to add 3 more points. Other point collectors were Joe Egan with a 3rd in the 45-yd. hurdles; a pair of fourth places by Stephen Coffey and Don Segar, in the 600-yd. run and shot, respectively.

The winning relay tandem included Wagner, Steve and Bill
Coffey, and Squires in the creditable time of 2:32.4.

Although Bob Stengle came through with a fine second in his heat in the 600 and Bob McSorley won the first heat in the 1000, neither lad's time figured in the final compilation.

A.H.S. Hockey Team Has Third Loss, 3-1

The Red and Gray hockey club dropped another GBI game Saturday at the Arena. Newton victimized the Burnsmen, 3 to 1.
The locals have won and lost 3 with 2 ties.

The lads played true to this season's form, showing good checking and defensive play but little offensive power.

Toward the end of the game
Cadagan, defenseman, received a severe cut from a skate over one eye. The slash required seven stitches to close. After temporary treatment at the Arena, his dad who was attending took him to Symmes.

team won a thriller from Wal-

the locals at the top of the Sub-

Lincoln!

If Lincoln were alive today, we wonder what he'd have to say. The headlines that would meet his eyes would fill his soul with shocked surprise. Since honesty was his chief trait, we're sure that he'd eliminate from public life all those who feel that it's no crime at all to steal.

When you have guests, your chief concern is their comfort and happiness. If your guests enjoy an occasional drink, serve them the best and they will be deeply grateful. We carry a large stock of name brand wines and liquors. High Street Beverage Co., 566 High Street. Free delivery.

Red and Gray Jottings

by Janemarie McKelvie

Don't miss the annual Dramatic Club play, "Meet Corliss Archer" which will be held this Friday, Feb. 8, at the Town Hall. Many humorous scenes are ably enacted by Ann O'Rourke, as Corliss; Hartley Noble, as Dexter, her boyfriend; Pauline Keefe, as Aunt Agnes; and Judy Kerivan as Louise, the maid.

The United Council on World Affairs will hold a buffet supper on Feb. 8. "Is Point Four The Answer?" will be discussed by Edward W. Blyden, an African who is studying at Harvard and by Professor Edwin O. Reischauer, one of the country's leading specialists on the Far East.

Congratulations are in order for Nancy Stetson, a senior at A.H.S. and Editor of the "Chronicle," who won the Legion Oratorical Contest held last week.

At a recent meeting of the Discussion Club the topic for discussion was "Things To Come In 1952." The speakers were Ronald Nigro, Robert Borghesani, and John McLaughlin. They presented the political, scientific and international aspects of the topic.

A.H.S. was well represented by both students and faculty at the mock trial held by the League of Women Voters on Jan. 30 at the Junior High East.

The girls' basketball team at A.H.S. is in the midst of a terrific season, undefeated so far! Such opponents as Melrose (45-30); Winchester (54-50); Watertown (53-29) and Malden (48-22) have been overpowered by an outstanding team with Margaret Callahan, as captain; Sheila Moore, Myra Belli and Margie Callahan as high scoring forwards and Vee Wallace, Betty Nash, and Roz Hanlon as staunch guards. Lexington, Belmont and Cambridge are bound to go down in quick succession.

Introducing William Squires: "Billy" truly lives up to his title of being one of the greatest athletes that Arlington High has ever had. Wherever he has represented A.H.S., he has always been a perfect example of a fine, clean sport. Billy attributes the greatest part of his success as a mile runner to "Doc" McCarty who has coached many of A.H.S.'s best athletes in every sport since 1911.

Billy's activities include working in the lunchroom, bowling and swimming. He also takes part in many C.Y.O. activities, basketball and baseball in particular, and has been a member of the Cross Country, Indoor and Outdoor Track teams for two years at Arlington High. The students of Arlington High were very proud of the fact that Billy received the New England Track and Field Officials Award as the most outstanding performer at the State Track Meet. Next year Billy plans to attend a prep school to prepare for college. We all hope he keeps on breaking records for years to come.

Frost Heads Republican Advertising Campaign

Karl M. Frost, president of the Harry M. Frost Company, Inc., Boston, has been appointed to handle all advertising for the Republican State Committee in the coming political campaign for 1952.

Frost created the slogan, "Had Enough?", which gained nationwide popularity in 1946.

The appointment was made today by Daniel Tyler Jr., chairman of the Republican State Committee.

West Downs East

Recently the Junior High West girls defeated the East, 23 to 18, in the first inter-school basketball game of the season. The West's second team also came out on top.

In inter-class games the West 8th Grade girls won—West 20, East 8, while the West seconds backed up the win, 25-12, to make it unanimous.

The 9th Graders' contest was closer, but the West-ers still prevailed, 29 to 25. The seconds made it a grand slam for Miss Vanasse, West coach, 26-21.

Town Topics

Among those attending the convention of the National Automobile Association in New York were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rockford of 5 Hartford rd., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Perham of 65 Norfolk rd.

Robert L. McNeill, a graduate of Arlington High School, has been elected president of The Academy, honorary scholastic organization in Northeastern University's College of Liberal Arts.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Burke of 132 Broadway, are also enjoying the Florida sunshine.

Miss Eleanor Antifantis of 71 Paul Revere rd., entertained her sister and nephew from New York recently.

Albert Porteus and J. Toppi of Winchester returned early this week from a business trip to New York.

Birthday greeting to Franklin Crocker (Chick) of 34 Ashland st. Chick is a ninth grade student at Jr. High West and well known for his musical accomplishments.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Boyd of 21 Ashland st., spent last weekend at Sandwich on Cape Cod where they were entertained by some of the faculty of the Sandwich High School.

Nuvart Boghosian, soprano, of Appleton st., will be featured at a Musical Guild Concert next Sunday evening at the College Club Boston. She will sing two groups of songs.

APPOINTED temporary registrar on Election Day is Dennis I. Donahue, 93 Overlook rd. Registrar Timothy J. Buckley reported he is forced to be out of town on business on that day.

Hearings Held For Mystic Parkway

Public hearings were held Jan. 30 on three measures, filed by Rep. Henry E. Keenan, for improvements of Mystic Valley Parkway beside the lake and rip-rapping the shoreline from the Parkway to Davis ave.

Keenan told the committee the measures were necessary as the shoreline and roadway is being washed away. Added danger arises from the recent installation of the natural gas line there, he said.

Archibald Loveys, 42 Draper ave., and Walter McLean, 210 Mystic Valley Parkway, presented petitions of support signed by residents in the respective areas.

Local Planning Board member, John B. Byrne Jr., Joseph Quinn and Harold O'Brien were recorded in favor.

Loveys said that the extent of the washing away of soil was evidenced by the mud flats at the southern end of the lake.

He said that rip-rapping would protect the health and safety of residents nearby.

JUNIOR HIGH WEST P.T.A.

The Junior High West P.T.A. will hold a meeting at the school on Feb. 11. Due to the illness of the president, Mrs. Lorimer Higgins, Mrs. James R. Boyd will conduct the meeting.

Harry Patterson, instructor of the Vocational Course at the High School, will show pictures of the students in action during classes.

Mr. James Powers, asst. principal of the Junior High West, will give a class demonstration in French.

The "Rec" orchestra, one of the projects of the Arlington Youth Association, under the leadership of Mrs. Robert Granahan, will entertain with the type of program given Friday nights at the Town Hall teen-age dances.

Friends of Drama See Artist Sketch Portrait

The Friends of the Drama business meeting, Feb. 2, in the club house, was conducted by Mrs. Harold A. Cahalin, vice president, in the absence of Russell T. Hamlet, president.

After the business meeting, Barbara Thomson, entertainment chairman, introduced Jean Appleton Lauga, a well known portrait artist, who made a charcoal portrait of Dow Pickering. She explained and demonstrated the steps taken as she worked. The finished portrait was an amazing likeness.

Mrs. Lauga is the wife of Norbert Lauga, a member of the Boston Symphony. They have recently moved to Arlington from California.

Coffee was served by Mrs. Donald Horley, Miss Carol Coes and Mrs. Robert Hadley with Mrs. David R. Kennedy and her daughter, Mrs. Warren A. Lindberg, as pourers.

GOLD STAR MOTHERS

Arlington Chapter No. 31, American Gold Star Mothers, Inc., held their installation on Jan. 30 in the Old Town Hall.

Mildred R. Parkins was installed as president, Mary Griffith as first vice president, Gertrude Langley as second vice president, and Mary R. Downing as chaplain.

Valentine Tips on Hearts and Flowers

ST. VALENTINE'S DAY is the year's biggest challenge to a man to use imagination and ingenuity to show his affection. And to help him, it's a challenge to every florist to bring a new flair to his year-round role as interpreter in the language of romance. Allyn Wayne, the flower stylist of the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association, provides a sophisticated touch in a Valentine corsage for Broadway actress Ludie Claire. Gorgeous red roses, historically the floral declaration of love, are combined with delicate hyacinths arranged in the shape of two hearts.

FOR A FLORAL VALENTINE that's guaranteed to go to her head, the FTD stylist suggests a purple heart of forget-me-nots framed against the pink of a heart-shaped anthurium as the above at right. Or, for the girl who craves the unusual, the FTD expert prescribes a striking wristlet (at lower right) of maroon anthuriums, red roses and a heart of white hyacinths—and have the florist mount it on a puff of lace. FARE FOR ST. VALENTINE'S DAY

You'll serve heart shaped cookies, of course, this February fourteenth. They're traditional. Our cookies are rich, spicy, paper thin and delicately ornamented with pink sugar and white frosting. This is an old world recipe adapted and streamlined in the research kitchens of Blue Bonnet Margarine.

Nobody knows exactly how many Saints Valentine there were. Rumor says five. We'll settle for one. Here is our special and delicious cookie recipe for greeting St. Valentine's Day.

ST. VALENTINE'S COOKIES

1 cup Blue Bonnet Margarine 1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup sugar 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1 cup molasses 1/2 teaspoon powdered cloves
1 egg 1/2 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon vinegar 4 cups sifted enrich
2 teaspoons baking soda 1/4 cup sugar
3-4 drops red food coloring

Cream margarine. Add sugar gradually and blend well. Stir in molasses. Beat in eggs. Add vinegar and blend. Stir baking soda and spices with flour and add to molasses mixture. Mix until smooth. Wrap dough in waxed paper and chill overnight in refrigerator. Remove from refrigerator and roll out at once on lightly floured board to a thickness of 1/8 inch. Cut into heart shapes with cookie cutter. Sprinkle with 1/4 cup granulated sugar which has been colored red with food coloring. Place 2 inches apart on ungreased cookie sheets. Bake in hot oven (400° F.) approximately 5 minutes. Cool. Decorate around edges with white frosting using paper cornucopia or pastry tube. Makes about 8 dozen cookies. (ANS Features)

Gail Matheson, president of the Council, led the meeting. Also taking part in the service were Kenneth Draper, Barbara Judd, Earl Sexton, Frances Ferrier, Betty Center, Miriam Hamm and Gail Townsend.

This union meeting, the first of its kind in Arlington, demonstrated that Protestant youth are united and are eager to join with those of every faith in rededicating their lives to the principles set forth by Christ.

CAB DRIVER WINS IN "TRIAL"

The "cab driver" was exonerated and the "woman driver" was refused damages by a jury of 12 of her peers on Wednesday of last week. About 450 people witnessed the mock trial, sponsored by the League of Women Voters, held at Junior High East.

In conducting the mock trial, actual court room procedure was followed in every particular. Some of the jurors called were challenged and one asked to be excused because she was a friend of the plaintiff.

One juror even fainted during the trial, necessitating the use of an alternate.

James Golden was brought in when his Honor ordered the sheriff to go out "into the highways and byways" in search of a male juror when one of the lawyers questioned the legality of an all-female jury.

COUNSELS BATTLE

Black-robed Judge Lawrence Brooks of Medford, as he presided over the trial and instructed the jury, created an atmosphere of dignity; and the lawyers, Russell T. Hamlet and John O. Parker, in questioning the witnesses and presenting their arguments, gave authenticity to the proceedings and staged a lively battle of wits.

Considerable histrionic ability was shown by the plaintiff, Mrs. Richard Uhle, as the slightly scatter-brained housewife, by Mrs. Harold B. Wood as the independent and sharp-tongued nurse, and Stahl's condition is listed as serious at the Kittery Naval Hospital, with possible skull fracture.
